HANDICAP AND MEMBERSHIP

- ☑ Handicap Certification Schedule for 2010 is now available. Registration may be completed online at the SCGA website. Next class is Tuesday, February 16 – Angeles National Golf Club
- ☑ The Southern California database is now on all posting computers. So when you post a score in Southern California you will see your name and current Handicap Index show up to verify you are posting to the correct file.
- ☑ Tournament scores that were brought over during the conversion into the player's file only included the date of the round and the handicap differential. In order for the information to be displayed in GHIN the score, course rating and Slope rating had to be artificially created to arrive at the correct handicap differential. So if you see a score listed under the two low tournament scores that you did not shoot please understand the handicap differential and the date are correct but the score and ratings do not match what you shot that day.

- ☑ 2010 Membership cards will be mailed with your 2010 Directory of Golf and January/February issue FORE Magazine around February 5.
